

Leaders Assembly 2007 Application

This year's Leaders Assembly will be held in Israel from December 25th 2007- January 3rd 2008. We are looking for leaders who are interested in helping understand their place within the greater Jewish global community, as well as, how to take that understanding and apply it on campus. Since this opportunity is unique, space is limited and we are looking for representation from a variety of campuses an application will be used to determine who will benefit most from this opportunity.* Please complete the following application and e-mail it to Soref@hillel.org by October 21st, 2007 for consideration.

Name: _____

School name: _____

Year in school: _____

Hillel Advisor: _____

What previous Israel experiences have you participated in?: _____

What positions have you held on campus (both Hillel and non-Hillel)?:

What do you hope to gain from this opportunity?:

How did you find out about this opportunity?:

* please note this opportunity is only open to current sophomores and juniors.

How do you view yourself in regards to your Jewish identity?:

- Should you be selected to attend Leaders Assembly 2007 there will be the requirement to submit two updates throughout the spring semester to illustrate how in practice your experience has benefited both you personally and your campus. Please check this box if you agree to this requirement.

If you have any questions about this application please e-mail soref@hillel.org.

* please note this opportunity is only open to current sophomores and juniors.
